2018 New Zealand Melanoma Summit
2 – 3 November 2018 | Cordis Hotel, Auckland

A two-day multi-disciplinary meeting that will:
- Connect melanoma expertise in New Zealand
- Examine and discuss recent developments in melanoma control
- Identify priorities for action for New Zealand

Register or find more information at

Featuring

Professor John Thompson
University of Sydney
A world expert surgical oncologist who has extensively contributed to melanoma management for over 25 years

Professor John Kelly
The Alfred Hospital
A dermatologist and founder of the Victorian Melanoma Service, one of Australia’s largest multi-disciplinary treatment services for melanoma

Professor David Whiteman
QMR Berghofer Medical Research Institute
A medical epidemiologist and pioneer of molecular approaches to melanoma

Doctor Donna Milne
Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre
An advanced practice nurse with the skin and melanoma service and a clinician researcher

Associate Professor Cliff Rosendahl
University of Queensland
A primary care practitioner with expertise in skin cancer and dermoscopy

Associate Professor Victoria Atkinson
Princess Alexandra Hospital, Brisbane
A medical oncologist who has extensive experience with targeted therapies for melanoma